'Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day' planned

Connecticut, in 2010, became the second state in the country to designate March 30 as Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day, the first being California. On Saturday, March 31, The Connecticut Department of Veterans' Affairs and the Veterans History Project at Central Connecticut State University will host a Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans ceremony at the Governor William A. O'Neill State Armory, 360 Broad St.,

Hartford. "An evening of USO-style entertainment is planned with celebrities and music, along with dramatic readings from letters and diaries of our Vietnam veterans," a flyer on Central's website said. The event begins at 7 p.m., and doors open at 6 p.m. Tickets must be purchased in advance, for veterans and non-veterans. Tickets are free for Vietnam veterans and $10 for all other guests. For tickets, contact Tim Jones at st_jonest@ccsu.edu or (860) 832-2978.
