Bowling event to help local girl with leukemia

A fund raiser will be held Super Bowl Sunday to help a local girl and her family with expenses related to her diagnosis with a form of leukemia.

Jamie's Super Bowl Sunday Bowling Event, which is sponsored by the Bristol Eastern High School football team and Booster Club, is intended to help Jamie Botteon and her family.

The event is a day of bowling and fun on Sunday, Feb. 7 at Spare Time Bowling Alley at 10 a.m. to noon.

Cost per bowler is $12. All proceeds go directly to Jamie.

Teams will be made up of 4 to 6 bowlers per lane. Bowlers will receive two hours of bowling, shoe rental, and free soda for the event. There will be raffle tickets to purchase, and free prizes.

You must pre-register your team with Spare Time as soon as possible. Call 583- 1669. Cash or checks only will be collected at the door. Let them know you are bowling for "Jamie's Super Bowl Sunday". Smaller teams are needed and welcome and will be paired up with others to fill the lane.

The kitchen will be open for food purchases. Doors open at 9 a.m.

Any questions please contact Karen at knrrose@aol.com or Coach Archangelo.

There will be a banner to sign and send well wishes, plus a video diary of the day for Jamie.

Bargain Box making way for spring with bag sale

The Women's Service Organization/Bargain Box located at the Bristol Senior Center on 240 Stafford Av. continues with its "Bag Sale." The month of February will have an additional incentive. For every two bags of clothing purchased you will get one bag for free. This will be offered to make way for the array of spring clothing waiting to be displayed.

The money realized from these sales will be distributed to local charitable organizations in the spring.

Anyone wishing to join the organization are asked to pick up an application at the Bargain Box during working hours or by calling Rita Dube at 582-6849. The Bargain Box is open Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. On Tuesdays, the hours are from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

There will be a card party at the Senior Center on April 21 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tickets will be available from members or at the Bargain Box.
