Bristol designer competes at Oscar party

FARMINGTON— The excitement and glamour of Hollywood are coming to Hartford on Oscar Night. Guests can experience the thrills and surprises of the 82nd Academy Awards on Sunday, March 7 at Hartford's own Oscar Night America party. Three fashion designers from Gibbs College will compete in "Project Red Carpet."

Inspired by Lifetime's "Project Runway," three Gibbs College designers—Anetra Guiont of Bristol, Elaine James, and Sarah Morgan—will compete with two other Hartford designers for Best Designer. They each received $150 for fabric, an unknown model, and had two weeks to design and sew a red-carpet gown.

Hartford's Oscar Night celebration will be held at 7 p.m. at DISH Bar and Grill. Hartford guests may feel like stars themselves as they arrive in Black-tie or costumed attire and walk the red carpet

Guests will dine on food prepared by Billy Carbone as they view the Annual Academy Awards live telecast and mingle with guests. Additional features include a fabulous silent auction, prizes for best costume, Moet Hennessy champagne, a photo booth, a fashion show and surprise "celebrity" guests.

Tickets are now on sale at ctidscoalition.org, or by calling (860) 761-6699. Tickets: $55 per person/ $100 per couple.

All proceeds from the event will benefit CARC (CT AIDS Resource Coalition). Co-founders Colin McEnroe and Peter Shapiro organized the first CARC Oscar Night 18 years ago at Cinestudio at Trinity College. Hartford's Oscar Night has grown every year and was officially sanctioned by Oscar Night America in 2006.
